CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

22 DEC 1982

Dr. Daniel J. Boorstin
The Librarian of Congress
Washington, D.C. 20540

Dear Mr. Boorstin:

The Central Intelligence Agency notes with deep regret the death of Mr. Nathan Einhorn of your staff.

In his role as Chief of the Library of Congress Exchange and Gift Division, Mr. Einhorn provided exceptional support to this Agency. Numerous requests, often with very short deadlines, originating with our library, acquisitions and translation activities were always handled with a minimum of paperwork. Mr. Einhorn went out of his way to assist the Agency in meeting its mission in support of the government policymakers.

The assistance that he provided to the Central Intelligence Agency reflects credit on him and the Library of Congress.

Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director for Intelligence
